Chief Nursing Officer

Born and raised in Atikokan, Jennifer achieved her Bachelor in Science of Nursing from Laurentian University and then worked in the states for 3 years before returning to Canada to work in Atikokan as her first Canadian nursing job. She then moved onto other hospitals and other positions including working in public health and home care. She returned to Atikokan in 2010 where she worked as the Executive Director of the Atikokan Family Health Team and then moved over to the Atikokan General Hospital to take on the position of Chief Nursing Officer in 2016.

She is married with two children and plans to stay in Atikokan until she retires.
